

JAY DOLMAGE

ACADEMIC ABLEISM:

Beyond Accommodation at UC Santa Cruz

Thursday, May 9 at 5:30-7p

College 9/10 Multipurpose Room

student lunch discussion:

Friday, May 10, 1-2:30p, Cowell 132

for lunch, please RSVP to <http://bit.ly/AcademicAbleismLunch>

This talk/discussion will address the ableist attitudes, policies, and practices that are built into higher education. It will also interrogate the minimal and temporary means we have been given to address inequities, and the cost such an approach has for disabled students and faculty. We will explore our own ableist biases, apologies, and defenses in an effort to build tools for anti-ableist education.

ASL interpretation and CART provided. Scent- and fragrance-free event. Please send access requests to ajkatz@ucsc.edu or (831) 459-24807. Logistics and transportation at <https://drc.ucsc.edu/events>. This is a child-friendly event.

Sponsored by the Disability Resource Center & the Writing Program

Read Academic Ableism for free on the web: <https://www.press.umich.edu/>